ORDER:

Government have issued orders reconstituting the Governing Body and Executive Body of A.P. Right to Sight Society from to time to time in the G.Os read above.

2. In his letter 6th read above, the Project Director, Andhra Pradesh Right to Sight Society has stated that according to the Bylaws of the APRTSS, the total members of Governing Body should not exceed 11 persons and will have representatives from all sectors involved in eye care, industry, Government, NGOs and community activity leaders. The present Governing Body has thirteen members and have nine vacancies which were not filled up so far, Even in the Executive Committee also there are no NGO members and it is not reflecting the image of public private partnership. The role of Executive Vice Chairman was the convenor and Chairman of Task Force Committee (Executive Committee) which used to meet regularly to formulate strategies and give guidelines to APRTSS and NPCB. The matter has been discussed with the Principal Secretary, H.M. & F.W. Department. It has been suggested that a note in the matter may be submitted for reconstitution of Governing body and Executive Committee. Accordingly, the APRTSS has submitted proposals for reconstitution of the Governing Body and Executive Committee of APRTSS duly stating that factors taken into consideration in the selection of members are i) men are eminence in their fields & public life (ii) qualification, experience and expertise in their chosen field (iii) representing different walks of life. The Director of Health in his letter seventh read above has recommended the above proposal.
